

Until all the hair is dry by styling."

- Now style and dry the hair ahead of the ear in a similar way."

- After getting the desired style, spray hair.

(Note)

- Keep in mind that while working, start from the neck and go towards the crown."

- Before using iron on damaged hair, make sure to use the head.

Blow drying on curl hair

- Apply styling lotion. Use Ceram as required.

- Split and subdivide the hair with an open-toothed comb

- Fix the diffuser in front of the hair dryer.

- By this method, the dryer is gently brought back towards the head so that the hair curls do not open and remain the same after drying.

- Dry all hair in this way according to the method of blow dry."- Finish the style with hair spray or styling gels.

• Ironing / crimping

- Ironing: Ironing is an electric device also known as a pressing machine. This is done by temporarily straightening out the waves and curls in the hair. It is also called pressing technique

- crimping: It is an electrical device by which the hair is temporarily wavered, which gives the hair a wavy and puffy hair styling." "Procedure" After shampoo, analyze hair and scalp, that is, look at hair texture, absorbency, length and thickness etc.

- Dry and split hair normally.

- In ironing / crimping, start from the neck and go towards the crown. Finally give a hairstyle that goes from ear to hairline.

Curling Rod: Used to temporarily curl hair. These are available in different sizes, depending on the volume and curls of hair. Be sure to check the temperature of the curling rod before its use. So that time can be managed keeping in view the length and thickness of the hair.

Tongs

It is an electric device to temporarily curl the hair. Which keeps the hair curly until the next shampoo. Curls can be given in the shape of a spiral wrapped in the end of the hair.

• Electric rollers / pre-heated rollers: It is an electric device to temporarily curl the hair. Which keeps the hair curly until the next shampoo. The rollers are heated before applying them to the client's hair. Spiral wrap the hot rollers in the end of the hair as needed.

Precautions to get good results (precautions)

- Check the client's head and hair thoroughly before styling.
- Protect the client's head or hair from overheating and pressure.
- Do not over-heat the hair on which coloring, lightning or any chemical has been used."

Use only plastic, combed or similar etc. in thermal hair styling."

- Keep the hot iron or rod in a safe place to heat it."
- Keep 1 - 1 1/4" away from the head while using the curling rod or tong.

- Always use protective creams to protect the customer from heat.

Handling and care of thermal hair styling equipments while using and after

- Check the temperature by applying heating iron on white paper or cloth before using it on the customer.
- Let the iron rod remain on the cloth for five seconds. If the cries stand, this means
- the rod is very hot. Use it after cooling it for some time.
- The use of heat on the texture of different hairs varies.
- Heat can be used for a long time on white hair as per the rules.

Contra indication in thermal hair styling:

- Any cut or bruise or burning sensation on the skin of the head.
- The presence of any chemicals etc. on the hair
- When the hair is very delicate or broken
- In case of any type of infected disease.
- On children under ten years old.
- Contra action in thermal hairstyling:
- jealousy
- Inflammation
- Skin reddening